Application no. 17499/24
v. Italy

Dear Madam,

I acknowledge receipt of your correspondence of 2 July 2024 containing your comments and supporting documents on the Government's observations concerning your request for an interim measure under Rule 39 of the Rules of Court made on 21 June 2024.

Decision on interim measure

The Court's decision on the request for interim measures is enclosed.

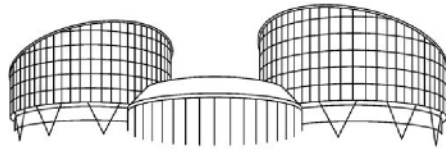

The parties' attention is drawn to the fact that failure of a Contracting State to comply with a measure indicated under Rule 39 may entail a breach of Article 34 of the Convention (see Mamatkulov and Askarov v. Turkey [GC], nos. 46827/99 and 46951/99, §§ 128 and 129, ECHR 2005-I; Paladi v. Moldova [GC], no. 39806/05, §§ 84-106, 10 March 2009; M.K. and Others v. Poland, nos. 40503/17 and 2 others, §§ 229-38, 23 July 2020; and K.I. v. France, no. 5560/19, § 115, 15 April 2021).

As indicated in my letter of 24 June 2024, you must send to the Court by 24 July 2024 the application (accessible on the Court's website www.echr.coe.int) duly completed together with the copies of all relevant documents. If no such information is received by the above date, the application may be struck out of the list of cases without further notice.

Yours faithfully,

EUROPEAN COURT OF HUMAN RIGHTS
COUR EUROPÉENNE DES DROITS DE L'HOMME

FIRST SECTION

DECISION

v. Italy

(no. 17499/24)

Request for interim measures lodged on 21 June 2024

The European Court of Human Rights (A. Polácková, the duty judge) has, on 3 July 2024, examined the request.

Having regard to the information provided by both parties, the Court decides, in the interests of the parties and the proper conduct of the proceedings before it, to indicate to the Government of Italy, under Rule 39 of the Rules of Court, that the applicant should be provided with medical assistance required by her state of health, including her immediate transfer from the Centre for Repatriation of Rome - Ponte Galeria to a facility suitable for her condition.
